To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing on behalf of Ashley Richardson, as a recommendation for a teaching position. Ms. Richardson has been working as a substitute and now a student teacher for the past year and a half at our school, and has worked in my room, a cooperative teaching classroom, a number of times. When not leading the class, Ms. Richardson would often pull small groups of students to preview or review lessons, as well as provide reading support for students.

Ms. Richardson always conducts her lessons and activities with precision and an optimistic attitude. She is professional with the students, other teachers and the families of our school. The students adore her, and the faculty finds her dependable and responsible. She initiates opportunities through substitute teaching and volunteering to increase her personal level of expertise with children.

I highly recommend Ms. Richardson for a position in education. She would make a fantastic addition to any faculty.

Sincerely,
